Robber Willie Sutton Caught

Triple Return 111. From Boston, Police...

A dramatic scene of a small boat rescue in a storm. The image is dominated by a dark, blue, and white color palette, representing the stormy sea and rain. In the foreground, a small, dark inflatable boat is being tossed by large, white-capped waves. Several people are on board, their forms silhouetted against the rain. One person in the center of the boat is holding a bright, glowing light source, possibly a flare or a powerful flashlight, which illuminates the immediate area and creates a stark contrast with the surrounding darkness. To the left, the side of a much larger vessel is visible, showing a ladder and some structural details. In the background, another large, dark structure, possibly a ship's deck or a large building, is partially visible through the heavy rain. The overall atmosphere is one of intense action and peril.

“The greatest small-boat rescue the Coast Guard has

“...because if they forget, then all of what those heroes did and the family of the 32 that were saved is all for naught – unless history can keep it alive.” --

Consider the Crew of the SS Pendleton...

“As for you, you were dead
in your transgressions and sins” – Ephesians 2:1 NIV

Consider the Crew of the
SS Pendleton...

“For when we were still without strength...”
– Romans 5:6a

Consider the 36500 Lifeboat...

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek.”

-- Romans 1:16

Consider the 36500 Lifeboat...

“³Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures.”

– 1 Corinthians 15:3-4

Consider the 36500 Lifeboat...

“You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.”

– Romans 5:6 NIV

A dramatic scene of a boat in a stormy sea at night. The boat is illuminated from within, casting a bright glow that contrasts with the dark, turbulent water and the dark sky. The boat is tilted, and the water is splashing around it. The overall mood is one of peril and hope.

Consider the Four Coast Guardsmen...

“Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God.”

– 2 Corinthians 5:20

Consider the Four Coast Guardsmen...

“Souls that are precious,
souls that are dying,
While we rejoice our sins
are forgiven;
Did He not also die for these lost ones?
Then let us point the way
unto heav'n.”

Consider the Four Coast Guardsmen...

“Into our hands the gospel is given,
Into our hands is given
the light,
Haste, let us carry God's
precious message,
Guiding the erring, back to the right.”

-- “Swiftly We’re Turning”
by Ruth Carruth and Tillit
S. Teddlie

Consider the Four Coast Guardsmen...

“¹⁵And He said to them,
‘Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. ¹⁶He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned.”

— Mark 16:15-16

Consider “Divine Providence”...

“¹⁸Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, ¹⁹that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.”

– 2 Corinthians 5:18-19

Consider "If They Forget..."

"Into our hands the gospel is given,
Into our hands is given the light,
Haste, let us carry God's
precious message,
Guiding the erring, back to the right."
