TRUE WORSHIP

Worship is an inborn yearning
Placed in the heart of man
By God, the world's Creator
We can observe and understand.

No matter where you travel
You are sure to find
Men of every nation
Worshiping at their shrine.

Their god may not live in a palace
He may be of wood or stone
But man is bound to worship
As on this earth he roams.

Ever since time began
Man thought he knew best
Beginning with Cain and Abel
It was Cain who failed the test.

For Cain's offering was not by faith
It was not as God directed.
Abel offered his gift by faith
The best of his flock was selected.

Men have failed to understand
The proper offering to bring
They treat God like a beggar-
He'll be pleased with anything.

Jesus told us of God's nature
He is a Spirit, Jesus taught
We must worship Him in spirit
True worshipers are what are sought.

True worship of the God of Heaven
Must be offered by His Word.
He gives us complete instruction,
But some have never heard.

That's the reason for the commandment
Jesus gave us long ago
That we should share the Gospel
With every one we know!

The church began on Pentecost
When Peter stood with the other eleven.
He preached that first gospel sermon
Men obeyed with hope of heaven.

About three thousand souls were added that day
It must have been a sight
To see that many baptized into Christ
And with the church unite.

They then continued steadfastly
In fellowship and prayer
More souls were added daily
And for each other they did care.

Now, the Lord's church comes together
On the first day of the week
They sing and pray and give their offering
It's the fellowship each should seek.

They hear a lesson from the Word
They worship with one accord
They partake of the bread and fruit of the vine
In the supper of the Lord.

So if you feel a need to worship
Seek a loyal congregation
Where folks meet to honor Christ
It's there you'll find salvation.

It's there you'll hear the Word proclaimed
Obey it with all your might Offer worship as God's Word directs
Then life will turn out right!
