Word Pictures in the New Testament

1 Timothy

A.T. Robertson
Chapter 1

1:1 According to the commandment [kat' epitag n]. A late Koin word (Polybius, Diodorus), but a Pauline word also in N.T. This very idiom (“by way of command”) in 1Co 7:6; 2Co 8:8; Ro 16:26; 1Ti 1:1; Tit 1:3. Paul means to say that he is an apostle under orders. Of God our Saviour [theou s t ros h m n]. Genitive case with [epitag n]. In the LXX [s t r] (old word from [s z] for agent in saving, applied to deities, princes, kings, etc.) occurs 20 times, all but two to God. The Romans called the emperor “Saviour God.” In the N.T. the designation of God as Saviour is peculiar to Lu 1:47; Jude 1:25; 1Ti 1:3; 2:3; 4:10; Tit 1:3; 2:10; 3:4. In the other Epistles Paul uses it of Christ (Php 3:20; Eph 5:23) as in 2Ti 1:10. In 2Pe 1:1 we have “our God and Saviour Jesus Christ” as in Tit 2:13. Our hope [t s elpidos h m n]. Like Col 1:27. More than the author and object of hope, “its very substance and foundation” (Ellicott).

1:2 True [gn si i]. Legitimate, not spurious. Old word from [ginomai], but Pauline only in N.T. (Php 4:3; 2Co 8:8; Tit 1:4). In Php 2:20 the adverb [gn si s] occurs and of Timothy again. Christ Jesus [Christou I sou]. So twice already in verse 1 and as usual in the later Epistles (Col 1:1; Eph 1:1).

1:3 As I exhorted [kath s parekalesa]. There is an ellipse of the principal clause in verse 4 (so do I now not being in the Greek). To tarry [prosmeinai]. First aorist active infinitive of [prosmen], old verb, attributed by Luke to Paul in Ac 13:43. That thou mightest charge [hina paraggeil is]. Subfinal clause with [hina] and the first aorist active subjunctive of [paraggell], old verb, to transmit a message along [para] from one to another. See 2Th 3:4, 6, 10. Lock considers this idiom here an elliptical imperative like Eph 4:29; 5:33. Certain men [tisin]. Dative case. Expressly vague (no names as in 1:20), though Paul doubtless has certain persons in Ephesus in mind. Not to teach a different doctrine [m heterodidaskalein]. Earliest known use of this compound like [kakodidaskalos] of Clement of Rome. Only other N.T. example in 6:3. Eusebius has [heterodidaskalos]. Same idea in Ga 1:6; 2Co 11:4; Ro 16:17. Perhaps coined by Paul.

1:4 To give heed [prosechein]. With [noun] understood. Old and common idiom in N.T. especially in Luke and Acts (Ac 8:10ff.). Not in Paul’s earlier Epistles. 1Ti 3:8; 4:1, 13; Tit 1:14. To fables [muthois]. Dative case of old word for speech, narrative, story, fiction, falsehood. In N.T. only 2Pe 1:16; 1Ti 1:4; 4:7; Tit 1:14; 2Ti 4:4. Genealogies [genealogiais]. Dative of old word, in LXX, in N.T. only here and Tit 3:9. Endless [aperantoi]. Old verbal compound (from [a] privative and [perain], to go through), in LXX, only here in N.T. Excellent examples there for old words used only in the Pastorals because of the subject matter, describing the Gnostic emphasis on aeons. Questionings [ekz t seis]. “Seekings out.” Late and rare compound from [ekz te] (itself Koin word, Ro 3:11 from LXX and in papyri). Here only in N.T. Simplex [z t sis] in Ac 15:2; 1Ti 6:4; Tit 3:9;
2Ti 2:23. A dispensation [οἰκονομίαν]. Pauline word (1Co 9:17; Col 1:25; Eph 1:9; 3:9; 1Ti 1:4), Lu 16:2-4 only other N.T. examples. In faith [ἐν πίστει]. Pauline use of [πίστις].

1:6 Having swerved [ἀστοχάν]. First aorist active participle of [ἀστοχή], compound Κοιν verb (Polybius, Plutarch) from [ἀστόχος] [a privative and [στόχος], a mark), “having missed the mark.” In N.T. only here, 6:21; 2Ti 2:18. With the ablative case [h n] (which). Have turned aside [ἐκτρέποντες]. Second aorist passive indicative of [ἐκτρέπω], old and common verb, to turn or twist out or aside. In medical sense in Heb 12:13. As metaphor in 1Ti 1:6; 6:20; 2Ti 4:4. Vain talking [ματαιολογίαν]. Late word from [ματαιολόγος], only here in N.T., in the literary Κοιν.

1:7 Teachers of the law [.nomodidaskaloi]. Compound only in N.T. (here, Lu 5:17; Ac 5:34) and ecclesiastical writers. Though they understand [ἐνοῦντες]. Concessive participle of [ἐνοεῖ], old verb (Eph 3:4,20). Neither what [με ὅ τι]. Relative [ὅ] (which things). Nor whereof [με ὅ περι τίν ὑν]. Here the interrogative [τίν] used in sense of relative [ὅ n]. It may be regarded as the use of an indirect question for variety (Parry). They confidently affirm [διαβηβαιοῦνται]. Present middle indicative of the common Κοιν compound, in N.T. only here and Tit 3:8.

1:8 If a man use it lawfully [εἰ τις αὐτῷ χρῆται]. Condition of third class with [εἰ] and present middle subjunctive of [χραομαι] with instrumental case.

1:9 Is not made for [οὐ κεῖται]. The use of [κεῖται] for [τεθεῖται] (perfect passive of [πίθεμι] is a common enough idiom. See the same point about law in Ga 18-23; Ro 13:13. For “knowing this” [εἰδ οὕτω] see Eph 5:5. Unruly [ἀνυποτακτοί]. Dative (like all these words) of the late verbal [a] privative and [ὑποτάσσω ]. In N.T. only here, Tit 1:6,10; Heb 2:8. Ungodly [ασεβεί]. See Ro 4:5; 5:6. Sinners [χαρματοί]. See Ro 3:7. Unholy [ανοσίαι]. Common word [a] privative and [ἁγιός]. In N.T. only here and 2Ti 3:2). Profane [βεβηλοί]. Old word from [βαιν], to go, and [β λος], threshold. See Heb 12:16. Murderers of fathers [πατριλαῖοι]. Late form for common Attic [πατριλαῖοι] (from [πατή], father, and [αλοία ], to smite) only here in N.T. Murderers of mothers [ματριλαῖοι]. Late form Attic [ματριλαῖοι]. Only here in N.T. Manslayers [ανδράφονοι]. Old compound [αν ῥ ], man, [φωνός], murder). Only here in N.T.

1:10 For abusers of themselves with men [αρσενοκοῖται]. Late compound for sodomites. In N.T. only here and 1Co 6:9. Men-stealers [ανδραποδισταῖ]. Old word from [ανδραποδίζ ] (from [αν ῥ ], man, [ποῦς], foot, to catch by the foot), to enslave. So enslavers, whether kidnappers (men-stealers) of free men or stealers of the slaves of other men. So slave-dealers. By the use of this word Paul deals a blow at the slave-trade (cf. Philemon). Liars [pseustai]. Old word, see Ro 3:4. False swearers [epiorkoi]. Old word [epi, orkos], oath). Perjurers. Only here in N.T. For similar lists, see 1Co 5:11; 6:9f.; Ga 5:19f.; Ro 1:28f.; 13:13; Col 3:5; Eph 5:5; 2Ti 3:2f. The sound doctrine [t i hugainous i didaskali i]. Dative case after [antikeitai], for which verb see Ga 5:17 for the conflict between the Spirit and the flesh. “The healthful [hugiain], old word for being well, as Lu 5:31; 3Jo 1:2, in figurative sense in N.T. only in the Pastorals) teaching.” See Tit 1:9; 2Ti 4:3.

1:11 Of the blessed God [tou makariou theou]. Applied to God only here and 6:15, but in Tit 2:13 [makarios] occurs with [elpis] (hope) of the “epiphany of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ.” Which was committed to my trust [ho episteuth n eg]. “with which [ho] accusative retained with first aorist passive verb [episteuth n] I was entrusted.”

1:12 I thank [charin ech]. “I have gratitude to.” Common phrase (Lu 17:9), not elsewhere in Paul. That enabled me [t i endunam santi me]. First aorist active articular participle of [endunamo]. Late verb, but regular Pauline idiom (Ro 4:20; Php 4:13; Eph 6:10; 1Ti 1:12; 2Ti 4:17). Appointing me to his service [themenos eis diakonian]. Second aorist middle participle. Pauline phrase and atmosphere (Ac 20:24; 1Co 3:5; 12:18, 28; 2Co 3:6; 4:1; Col 1:23; Eph. 3:7; 1Ti 4:6; 2Ti 4:5, 11).

1:13 Before [to proteron]. Accusative of general reference of the articular comparative, “as to the former-time,” formerly, as in Ga 4:13. Though I was [onta]. Concessive participle agreeing with [me]. Blasphemer [blasph mon]. Old word either from [blax] (stupid) and [ph mon], speech, or from [blapt], to injure. Rare in N.T. but Paul uses [blasph me], to blaspheme in Ro 2:24. Persecutor [di kts]. So far found only here. Probably made by Paul from [di k], which he knew well enough (Ac 22:4, 7; 26:14f.; Ga 1:13, 23; Php 3:6; 2Ti 3:12). Injurious [hubrist n]. Substantive, not adjective, “an insolent man.” Old word from [hubriz], in N.T. only here and Ro 1:30. I obtained mercy [ele th n]. First aorist passive indicative of [ele e], old verb. See 2Co 4:1; Ro 11:30f. Ignorantly [agno n]. Present active participle of [agnoe], “not knowing.” Old verb (Ro 2:4). In a blindness of heart. In unbelief [en apisti]. See Ro 11:20,25.

1:14 Abounded exceedingly [huperepleonasen]. Aorist active indicative of the late and rare (So 5:19 and in Herond.) compound [huperpleonaz] (here alone in N.T.), in later ecclesiastical writers. The simplex [pleonaz] Paul used in Ro 5:20; 6:1 and the kindred [hupereperisseuseusen] used also with [h charis]. Paul is fond of compounds with [huper]. For “faith in Christ Jesus” see Ga 3:26, for “faith and love in Christ Jesus” as here, see 2Ti 1:13.

1:15 Faithful is the saying [pistos ho logos]. Five times in the Pastorals (1Ti 1:15; 3:1; 4:9; Tit 3:8; 2Ti 2:11). It will pay to note carefully [pistis, pisteu, pistos]. Same use of [pistos] (trustworthy) applied to [logos] in Tit 1:9; Re 21:5; 22:6. Here and probably in 2Ti 2:11 a definite saying seems to be referred to, possibly a quotation [hoti] of a current saying quite like the Johannine type of teaching. This very phrase (Christ coming into the world) occurs in Joh 9:37; 11:27; 16:28; 18:37. Paul, of course, had no access to the Johannine writings, but such “sayings” were current among... the disciples. There is no formal quotation, but “the whole phrase implies a knowledge of Synoptic and Johannine language” (Lock) as in Lu 5:32; Joh 12:47. Acceptation [apodoch s]. Genitive case with [axios] (worthy of). Late word (Polybius, Diod., Jos.) in N.T. only here and 4:9. Chief [pr tos]. Not [ n] (I was), but [eimi] (I am). “It is not easy to think of any one but St. Paul as penning these words” (White). In 1Co 15:9 he had called himself “the least of the apostles” [elachistos t n apostol n]. In Eph 3:8 he refers to himself as “the less than the least of all saints” [t i elachistoter i pant n hagi n]. On occasion Paul would defend himself as on a par with the twelve apostles (Ga 2:6-10) and superior to the Judaizers (2Co 11:5f.; 12:11). It is not mock humility here, but sincere appreciation of the sins of his life (cf. Ro 7:24) as a persecutor of the church of God (Ga 1:13), of men and even women (Ac 22:4f.; 26:11). He had sad memories of those days.

1:16 In me as chief [en emoi pr t i]. Probably starts with the same sense of [pr tos] as in verse 15 (rank), but turns to order (first in line). Paul becomes the “specimen” sinner as an encouragement to all who come after him. Might shew forth [endeix tai]. First aorist middle subjunctive (purpose with [hina] of [endeiknumi], to point out, for which see Eph 2:7 (same form with [hina]. Longsuffering [makrōthumian]. Common Pauline word (2Co 6:6). For an ensample [pros hupotup sin]. Late and rare word (in Galen, Sext. Emp., Diog. Laert., here only in N.T.) from late verb [hupotupo] (in papyri) to outline. So substantive here is a sketch, rough outline. Paul is a sample of the kind of sinners that Jesus came to save. See [hupodeigma] in 2Pe 2:6.

1:17 This noble doxology is a burst of gratitude for God’s grace to Paul. For other doxologies see Ga 1:5; Ro 11:36; 16:27; Php 4:20; Eph 3:21; 1Ti 6:16. White suggests that Paul may have often used this doxology in his prayers. Lock suggests “a Jewish liturgical formula” (a needless suggestion in view of Paul’s wealth of doxologies seen above). For God’s creative activity (King of the ages) see 1Co 10:11; Eph 2:7; 3:9, 11. Incorruptible [aphthart i]. As an epithet of God also in Ro 1:23. Invisible [aorat i]. Epithet of God in Col 1:15. The only God [mon i the i]. So Ro 16:27; Joh 5:44; 17:3. For ever and ever [eis tous ai nas t n ai n n]. “Unto the ages of ages.” Cf. Eph 3:21 “of the age of the ages.”

1:18 I commit [paratithemai]. Present middle indicative of old and common verb, to place beside [para] as food on table, in the middle to entrust (Lu 12:48) and used by Jesus as he was dying (Lu 23:46). Here it is a banking figure and repeated in 2Ti 2:2. According to the prophecies which went before on thee [kata tas proagousas epi se proph teias]. Intransitive use of [proag ], to go before. When Timothy first comes before us (Ac 16:2) “he was testified to” [emartureito] by the brethren. He began his ministry rich in hopes, prayers, predictions. That by them thou mayest war the good warfare [hina strateu i en autais t n kal n strateian]. Cognate accusative [strateian], old word from [strateu ], in N.T. only here and 2Co 4:4) with [strateu i] (second person singular middle present subjunctive of [strateu ], old verb chiefly in Paul in N.T., 1Co 9:7; 2Co 10:3). As if in defensive armour.
1:19 Holding faith and a good conscience [ἐκχ n pistin kai agath n suneid sin]. Possibly as a shield (Eph 6:16) or at any rate possessing (Ro 2:20) faith as trust and a good conscience. A leader expects them of his followers and must show them himself. Having thrust from them [ἀπ samenoi]. First aorist indirect middle participle of [ἀπ the ], to push away from one. Old verb (see Ro 11:1f.).

Made shipwreck [ἐναυαγ san]. First aorist active indicative of [nauage ], old verb from [nauagos] (shipwrecked, [naus], ship, [agnumi], to break), to break a ship to pieces. In N.T. only here and 2Co 11:25. Concerning the faith [peri t n pistin]. Rather, “concerning their faith” (the article here used as a possessive pronoun, a common Greek idiom).

1:20 Hymenaeus [Humenaios]. The same heretic reappears in 2Ti 2:17. He and Alexander are the chief “wreckers” of faith in Ephesus. Alexander [Alexandros]. Probably the same as the one in 2Ti 4:14, but not the Jew of that name in Ac 19:33, unless he had become a Christian since then.

I delivered unto Satan [παρεδ ka t i Satan i]. See this very idiom [paradounai t i Satan i] in 1Co 5:5. It is a severe discipline of apostolic authority, apparently exclusion and more than mere abandonment (1Th 2:18; 1Co 5:11; 2Co 2:11), though it is an obscure matter. That they might be taught not to blaspheme [hina paideuth sin m blasphem mein]. Purpose clause with [hina] and first aorist passive subjunctive of [paideu ]. For this use of this common late verb, see 1Co 11:32; 2Co 6:9.
Chapter 2

2:1 First of all [pr ton pant n]. Take with [parakal ]. My first request (first in importance). Intercessions [enteuxes]. Late word (Polybius, Plutarch, etc.), only here in N.T. and 4:5, though the verb [entugchan ] in Ro 8:27, 34; 11:2.25. The other three words for prayer are common (Php 4:6). For all men [huper pant n anthr p n]. The scope of prayer is universal including all kinds of sinners (and saints).

2:2 For kings [huper basile n]. And this included Nero who had already set fire to Rome and laid it on the Christians whom he was also persecuting. And all them that are in high place [kai pant n t n en huperoch i ont n]. [Huperoch ] is old word (from [huperos] and this from [huper ] and [ech ]), but in N.T. only here and 1Co 2:1. That we may lead [hina diag men]. Purpose clause with present active subjunctive of [diag ], an old and common verb, but in N.T. only here and Tit 3:3. Tranquil [remon]. Late adjective from the old adverb [rema] (stilly, quietly). Here only in N.T. Quiet [h suchion]. Old adjective, once in LXX (Isa 66:2), in N.T. only here and 1Pe 3:4. Life [bion]. Old word for course of life (not [z ]). So Lu 8:14. Gravity [semitot ti]. Old word from [semnos] (Php 4:8), in N.T. only here, 3:4; Tit 2:7.

2:3 Acceptable [apodekton]. Late verbal adjective from [apodechomai]. In inscriptions and papyri. In N.T. only here and 5:4.

2:4 Willeth [thelei]. God’s wish and will in so far as he can influence men. That all men should be saved [pantas anthr pous s th nai]. First aorist passive infinitive of [s z ] with accusative of general reference. See 1Co 10:33; 2Co 5:18f. To the knowledge [eis epign sin]. “The full knowledge” as in Col 1:6; Eph 4:13 (ten times in Paul). See 2Ti 3:7 for the whole phrase “full knowledge of the truth” [al theia] 14 times in the Pastorals). Paul is anxious as in Colossians and Ephesians that the Gnostics may not lead the people astray. They need the full intellectual apprehension of Christianity.

2:6 A ransom for all [antilutron huper pant n]. “A reminiscence of the Lord’s own saying” (Lock) in Mt 20:28 (Mr 10:45) where we have [lutron anti poll n]. In the papyri [huper ] is the ordinary preposition for the notion of substitution where benefit is involved as in this passage. [Antil] has more the idea of exchange and [antilutron huper ] combines both ideas. [Lutron ] is the common word for ransom for a slave or a prisoner. Paul may have coined [antilutron ] with the saying of Christ in mind (only one MS. of Ps 48:9 and Orph. Litt. 588). See Ga 1:4 “who gave himself for our sins.” The testimony [to marturion]. Either the nominative absolute or the accusative absolute in apposition to the preceding clause like [to adunaton] in Ro 8:3. In its own times [kairois idiois]. Locative case as in 6:15; Tit 1:3. See Ga 6:9 for “due season.” There is no predicate or participle here, “the testimony in its due seasons” (plural).

2:8 I desire [boulomai]. So Php 1:12. The men [tous andras]. Accusative of general reference with the infinitive [proseuchesthai]. The men in contrast to “women” [gunaikas] in 9. It is public worship, of course, and “in every place” [en panti top i] for public worship. Many modern Christians feel that there were special conditions in Ephesus as in Corinth which called for strict regulations on the women that do not always apply now. Lifting up holy hands [epairontas hosieous cheiras]. Standing to pray. Note also [hosious] used as feminine (so in Plato) with [cheiras] instead of [hosias]. The point here is that only men should lead in public prayer who can lift up “clean hands” (morally and spiritually clean). See Lu 24:50. Adverb [hosi s] in 1Th 2:10 and [hosiot s] in Eph 4:24. Without wrath and disputing [ch ris org s kai dialogismou]. See Php 2:14.

2:9 In like manner that women [hosaut s gunaikas]. [Boulomai] must be repeated from verse 8, involved in [hosaut s] (old adverb, as in Ro 8:26). Parry insists that [proseuchomenas] (when they pray) must be supplied also. Grammatically that is possible (Lock), but it is hardly consonant with verses 11-15 (White). Adorn themselves [kosmein heautas]. Present active infinitive after [boulomai] understood. Old word from [kosmos] (arrangement, ornament, order, world). See Lu 21:5; Tit 2:10. See Co 11:5ff. for Paul’s discussion of women’s dress in public worship. In modest apparel [en katastol i kosmi i]. [Katastol ] is a late word (a letting down, [katastell ], of demeanour or dress, arrangement of dress). Only here in N.T. [Kosmios] is old adjective from [kosmos] and means well-arranged, becoming. W. H. have adverb in margin [kosmi s]. With shamefastness [meta aidous]. Old word for shame, reverence, in N.T. only here and Heb 12:28. Sobriety [s phrosun s]. Old word, in N.T. only here, verse 15, and Ac 26:15 (Paul also). Not with braided hair [m en plegmasin]. Old word from [plek ], to plait, to braid, for nets, baskets, here only in N.T. Cf. 1Pe 3:1 [emplok s]. And gold [en chrusi i]. Locative case with [en] repeated. Some MSS. read [chrus i]. Both used for gold ornaments. Or pearls [ margaritais]. See Mr 7:6 for this word. Or costly raiment [ himatism i polutelei]. [Himatismos] a common Koin word from [himatiz ], to clothe. [Polutei s], old word from [polus] and [telos] (great price). See Mr 14:3.
2:10 Becometh [prepei]. Old word for seemly. Paul wishes women to wear “becoming” clothes, but [theosebeian] (godliness, from [theoseb s], Joh 9:31, [theos, sebomai], worship) is part of the “style” desired. Only here in N.T. Good dress and good works combined.

2:11 In quietness [en h suchi i]. Old word from [h suchios]. In N.T. only here, Ac 22:2; 2Th 3:12. In all subjection [en pas i hupotag i]. Late word (Dion. Hal., papyri), in N.T. only here, 2Co 9:13; Ga 2:5. See 1Co 14:33-35.

2:12 I permit not [ouk epitrep]. Old word [epitrep ], to permit, to allow (1Co 16:7). Paul speaks authoritatively. To teach [didaskein]. In the public meeting clearly. And yet all modern Christians allow women to teach Sunday school classes. One feels somehow that something is not expressed here to make it all clear. Nor to have dominion over a man [oude authentein andros]. The word [authente ] is now cleared up by Kretschmer (Glotta, 1912, pp. 289ff.) and by Moulton and Milligan’s Vocabulary. See also Nageli, Der Wortschatz des Apostels Paulus and Deissmann, Light, etc., pp. 88f. [Autodike ] was the literary word for playing the master while [authente ] was the vernacular term. It comes from [aut-hentes], a self-doer, a master, autocrat. It occurs in the papyri (substantive [authent s], master, verb [authente ], to domineer, adjective [authentikos], authoritative, “authentic”). Modern Greek has [aphentes] = Effendi = “Mr.”

2:13 Was first formed [pr tos eplasth ]. Note [pr tos], not [pr ton], first before Eve. First aorist passive indicative of [plass ], old verb, in N.T. only here and Ro 9:20 (cf. Ge 2:7f.).

2:14 Being beguiled [exapat theisa]. First aorist passive participle of [exapate ], old compound verb, in N.T. only by Paul (2Th 2:3; 1Co 3:18; 2Co 11:3; Ro 7:11; 16:18; 1Ti 2:14). Not certain that [ex-] here means “completely deceived” in contrast to simplex [ouk pat th ] used of Adam, though possible. Hath fallen [gegonen]. Second perfect indicative active, permanent state. See 1Co 11:7.

2:15 Through the child-bearing [dia t s teknogonias]. Late and rare word (in Aristotle). Here alone in N.T. From [teknogonos] and this from [teknon] and root [gen ]. This translation makes it refer to the birth of the Saviour as glorifying womanhood. That is true, but it is not clear that Paul does not have mostly in mind that child-bearing, not public teaching, is the peculiar function of woman with a glory and dignity all its own. “She will be saved” [s th setai] in this function, not by means of it. If they continue [ean mein sin]. Condition of third class, [ean] with first aorist active subjunctive of [men ], to continue. Note change to plural from the singular [s th setai].
Chapter 3

3:1 Faithful is the saying [pistos ho logos]. Here the phrase points to the preceding words (not like 1:15) and should close the preceding paragraph. If a man seeketh [ei tis oregetai]. Condition of first class, assumed as true. Present middle indicative of [oreg ], old verb to reach out after something, governing the genitive. In N.T. only here, 6:10; Heb 11:16. The office of a bishop [episkop s]. Genitive case after [oregetai]. Late and rare word outside of LXX and N.T. (in a Lycaonian inscription). From [episkope ] and means “over-seership” as in Ac 1:20.

3:2 The bishop [ton episkopon]. The overseer. Old word, in LXX, and inscriptions and papyri. Deissmann (Bible Studies, pp. 230f.) has shown it is applied to communal officials in Rhodes. See Ac 20:28 for its use for the elders (presbyters) in verse 17. So also in Tit 1:5,7. See Php 1:1. The word does not in the N.T. have the monarchical sense found in Ignatius of a bishop over elders. Without reproach [anepil mpton]. Accusative case of general reference with [dei] and [einai]. Old and common verbal [a] privative and [epilamban ], not to be taken hold of), irreproachable. In N.T. only here, 5:7; 6:14. Of one wife [mias gunaikos]. One at a time, clearly. Temperate [n phalion]. Old adjective. In N.T. only here, verse 11; Tit 2:2. But see [n ph ], to be sober in 1Th 5:6, 8. Soberminded [s phrona]. Another old adjective (from [saos] or [s s], sound, [phr n], mind) in N.T. only here, Tit 1:8; 2:2,5. Orderly [kosmion]. See on 2:9. Seemly, decent conduct. Given to hospitality [philoxenon]. Old word (see [philoxenia] in Ro 12:13), from [philos] and [xenos], in N.T. only here, Tit 1:8; 1Pe 4:9. Apt to teach [didaktikon]. Late form for old [didaskalikos], one qualified to teach. In Philo and N.T. only (1Ti 3:2; 2Ti 2:24).

3:3 No brawler [m paroinon]. Later word for the earlier [paroinios], one who sits long at (beside, [para] his wine. In N.T. only here and Tit 1:3. No striker [m pl kt n]. Late word from [pl ss ], to strike. In N.T. only here and Tit 1:3. Gentle [epieik ]. See on Php 4:5 for this interesting word. Not contentious [amachon]. Old word (from [a] privative and [mach ], not a fighter. In N.T. only here and Tit 3:2. No lover of money [aphilarguron]. Late word [a] privative and compound [phil-arguros] in inscriptions and papyri (Nageli; also Deissmann, Light, etc., pp. 85f.). In N.T. only here and Heb 13:5.

3:4 Ruling [proistamenon]. Present middle participle of [proist mi], old word to place before and (intransitive as here) to stand before. See 1Th 5:12; Ro 12:8. In subjection [en hupotag i]. See verse 11.

3:5 If a man knoweth not [ei tis ouk oiden]. Condition of first class, assumed as true. How to rule [proist nai]. Second aorist active infinitive of same verb [proist mi] and with [oiden] means “know how to rule,” not “know that he rules.” How [p s]. Rhetorical question expecting negative answer. Shall he take care of [epimel setai]. Future middle of [epimeleomai], old compound [epi], direction of care towards) verb, in LXX, in N.T. only here and Lu 10:34f. The church of God [ekkl sias
3:6 Not a novice [m neophuton]. Our “neophyte.” Vernacular word from Aristophanes on, in LXX, and in papyri in the original sense of “newly-planted” [neos, phu]. Only here in N.T. Lest [hina m]. “That not.” Being puffed up [tuph theis]. First aorist passive participle of [tupho], old word (from [tuphos], smoke, pride), to raise a smoke or mist (a smoke-screen of pride). In N.T. only here; 6:4; 2Ti 3:4. He fall into [empes i eis]. Second aorist active subjunctive with [hina m], negative purpose, of [empipt], old verb, to fall into. Note both [en] and [eis] as in Mt 12:11; Lu 10:36. The condemnation of the devil [krima tou diabolou]. See Ro 3:8 for [krima]. Best to take [tou diabolou] as objective genitive, though subjective in verse 7, “the condemnation passed on or received by the devil” (not just “the slanderer,” any slanderer).

3:7 From them that are without [apo t n ex then]. “From the outside (of the church) ones.” Paul’s care for the witness of outsiders is seen in 1Th 4:12; 1Co 10:32; Col 4:5. There are, of course, two sides to this matter. Reproach [oneidismon]. Late word from [oneidiz]. See Ro 15:3. The snare of the devil [pagida tou diabolou]. Here subjective genitive, snare set by the devil. [Pagis], old word from [p gnumi], to make fast. So a snare for birds (Lu 21:35), any sudden trap (Ro 11:9), of sin (1Ti 6:9), of the devil (1Ti 3:7; 2Ti 2:26). Ancients used it of the snares of love. The devil sets special snares for preachers (conceit verse 6, money 6:9, women, ambition).

3:8 Deacons [diakonous]. Accusative case of general reference like the preceding with [dei einai] understood. Technical sense of the word here as in Php 1:1 which see (two classes of church officers, bishops or elders, deacons). Grave [semnous]. See Php 4:8. Repeated in verse 11; Tit 2:2. Not double-tongued [m dilogous]. Rare word [dis, leg ] saying same thing twice. Xenophon has [diloge] and [dilogia]. In Pollux, but LXX has [digl sos] (double-tongued, Latin bilinguis). Only here in N.T. One placed between two persons and saying one thing to one, another to the other. Like Bunyan’s Parson “Mr. Two-Tongues.” Not given to much wine [m oin i poll i prosechontas]. “Not holding the mind [ton noun] understood as usual with [prosech], 1Ti 1:4) on much wine” [oin i], dative case). That attitude leads to over-indulgence. Not greedy of filthy lucre [m aischrokerdeis]. Old word from [aischros] (Eph 5:12) and [kerdos] (Php 1:21). “Making small gains in mean ways” (Parry). Not genuine in verse 3. In N.T. only here and Tit 1:7 (of bishops).

3:9 The mystery of the faith [to must rion t s piste s]. “The inner secret of the faith,” the revelation given in Christ. See for [must rion] in Paul (2Th 2:7; 1Co 2:7; Ro 16:25; Col 1:26; Eph 3:9). In a pure conscience [en kathar i suneid sei]. See 1:19. “The casket in which the jewel is to be kept” (Lock).

3:10 First be proved [dokimazesth san pr ton]. Present passive imperative third plural of [dokimaz], old and common verb, to test as metals, etc. (1Th 2:4, and often in Paul). How the proposed deacons are to be “first” tested before approved Paul does not say. See Php 1:10 for the two senses (test, approve) of the word. Let them serve as deacons [diakoneit san]. Present active imperative of [diakone] (same root as [diakonos], common verb, to minister, here “to serve as deacons.” Cf. [diakonein] in Ac 6:2. See also verse 13. If they be blameless [anegkl toi ontes]. “Being blameless” (conditional participle, [ontes]. See 1Co 1:8; Col 1:22 for [anegkl tos].

3:11 Women [gunaikas]. Accusative with [dei einai] understood [hosaut s], likewise as in verse 8. Apparently “women as deacons” (Ro 16:1 about Phoebe) and not women in general or just “wives of deacons.” See Pliny (Ep. X. 97) ministras. Not slanderers [m diabolous]. Original meaning of [diabolos] (from [diaball], Lu 16:1), the devil being the chief slanderer (Eph 6:11). “She-devils” in reality (Tit 2:3). “While men are more prone to be [dilogous], double-tongued, women are more prone than men to be slanderers” (White). Faithful in all things [pistas en p sin]. Perhaps as almoners (Ellicott) the deaconesses had special temptations.

3:12 Of one wife [mias gunaikos]. At a time as in verse 2. Ruling well [proistamenoi kal s]. As in 4.

3:13 Gain to themselves [heautois peripoiountai]. Present middle indicative of [peripoie], old verb, to make besides [peri], around, over), to lay by. Reflexive (indirect) middle with reflexive pronoun [heautois] repeated as often happens in the Koin. In N.T. only here, Lu 17:33; Ac 20:28 (Paul also, quoting Isa 43:21). A good standing [bathmon kalon]. Late word from [bain], in LXX for steps at a door (1Sa 5:5). In plural the steps of a stair. In the inscriptions it means a good foothold or standing. The ecclesiastical writers (Theodoret) take it to be a higher grade or rank, but it is doubtful if Paul means that here. Much boldness [poll n parr sian]. A Pauline phrase (2Co 3:12; 7:4; Php 1:20). In the faith which is in Christ Jesus [en pistei t i en Christ i Isou]. Pauline phrase again (Ac 26:18; Ga 3:26; Col 1:4; Eph 1:15; 2Ti 1:13; 3:15).

3:14 Shortly [en tachei]. Old idiom (locative case of [tachos], quickness, speed). See Ro 16:20. A pseudonymous writer would hardly have put in this phrase. Paul’s hopes were not to be realized, but he did not know that.

3:15 But if I tarry long [ean de bradun]. Condition of third class with [ean] and the present active subjunctive of [bradun], old verb, to be slow (usually intransitive), from [bradus] (slow, dull, Lu 24:25), in N.T. only here and 2Pe 3:9. That thou mayest know [hina eid is]. Final clause with [hina] and second perfect active subjunctive of [oida], to know. How men ought [p s dei]. “How it is necessary for thee” (supply [se] more naturally than [tina], any one). Indirect question. To behave themselves [anastrephesthai]. Present middle (direct) infinitive of [anastreph], old verb, to turn up and down. See 2Co 1:12; Eph 2:3. In the house of God [en oik i theou]. Probably here “household of God,” that is “the family of God” rather than “the house (or temple) of God.” Christians as yet had no separate houses of worship and [oikos] commonly means “household.” Christians are the [naos] (sanctuary) of God (1Co 3:16f.; 2Co 6:16), and Paul calls them [oikeioi].

3:16 Without controversy [homologoumen s]. Old adverb from the participle [homologoumenos] from [homologe]. Here only in N.T. “Confessedly.” Great [mega]. See Eph 5:32. “A great mystery.” The mystery of godliness [to t s eusebeias must rion]. See verse 9 “the mystery of the faith,” and 2:2 for [eusebeia]. Here the phrase explains “a pillar and stay of the truth” (verse 15). See in particular Co 1:27. “The revealed secret of true religion, the mystery of Christianity, the Person of Christ” (Lock). He who [hos]. The correct text, not [theos] (God) the reading of the Textus Receptus (Syrian text) nor [ho] (neuter relative, agreeing with [must rion] the reading of the Western documents. Westcott and Hort print this relative clause as a fragment of a Christian hymn (like Eph 5:14) in six strophes. That is probably correct. At any rate [hos] (who) is correct and there is asyndeton (no connective) in the verbs. Christ, to whom [hos] refers, is the mystery (Col 1:27; 2:2).

Was manifested [ephaner th]. First aorist passive indicative of [phanero], to manifest. Here used to describe the incarnation [*en sarki] of Christ (an answer also to the Docetic Gnostics). The verb is used by Paul elsewhere of the incarnation (Ro 16:26; Col 1:26) as well as of the second coming (Col 3:4). Justified in the spirit [edikai th en pneumati]. First aorist passive indicative of [dikaio], to declare righteous, to vindicate. Christ was vindicated in his own spirit (Heb 9:14) before men by overcoming death and rising from the dead (Ro 1:3f.). Seen of angels [phth aggelois]. First aorist passive indicative of [hora], to see, with either the instrumental or the dative case of angels [aggelois]. The words were probably suggested by the appearance of Jesus [phth], the usual form for the resurrection appearances of Christ) of the angels at the tomb and at the ascension of Christ. See Php 2:10; 1Pe 3:22 for the appearance of Jesus to the angels in heaven at the ascension. Some would take “angels” here to be “messengers” (the women). Preached among the nations [ek ruchth en ethnesin]. First aorist passive indicative of [k russ], to proclaim. The word [ethnos] may mean “all creation” (Col 1:23) and not just Gentiles as distinct from Jews. Paul had done more of this heralding of Christ among the Gentiles than any one else. It was his glory (Eph 3:1,8). Cf. 2:7. Believed on in the world [episteuth en kosm i]. First aorist indicative passive again of [pisteu], to believe (2Th 1:10). Cf. 1:15; 2Co 5:19. Received up in glory [anel mpth en dox i]. First aorist passive again (six verbs in the same voice and tense in succession, a rhythmic arrangement like a hymn). Cf. Ro 8:29f. This time the verb is \( \text{analamban} \), the verb used of the ascension (Ac 1:11, 22, which see). In a wonderful way this stanza of a hymn presents the outline of the life of Christ.
Chapter 4

4:1 Expressly [r\ t\ s]. Late adverb, here alone in N.T., from verbal adjective [r\ tos] (from root [r]). The reference is to the Holy Spirit, but whether to O.T. prophecy (Ac 1:16) or to some Christian utterance (2Th 2:2; 1Co 14:1ff.) we do not know. Parry recalls the words of Jesus in Mt 24:10,24.

In later times [en husterois kairois]. Old adjective (Mt 21:31) usually as adverb, [husteron] (Mt 4:2). Relative time from the prediction, now coming true (a present danger). Some shall fall away [apost ontai tines]. Future middle of [aphist mi], intransitive use, shall stand off from, to fall away, apostatize (2Co 12:8). From the faith [t\ s\ piste\ s]. Ablative case (separation). Not creed, but faith in God through Christ. Giving heed [prosechontes]. Supply [ton noun] (the mind) as in 3:8. Seducing spirits [pneumasin planois]. Old adjective [plan], wandering), here active sense (deceiving). As substantive in 2Co 6:8. Probably some heathen or the worst of the Gnostics. Doctrines of devils [didaskaliais daimoni n]. “Teachings of [daimons].” Definite explanation of the preceding. Cf. 1Co 10:20ff.

4:2 Through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies [en hupokrisei pseudolog n]. For [hupokrisis], see Ga 2:13. [Pseudologos] [pseud s, leg] Koin word from Aristophanes on. Here only in N.T. “A good classical word for liars on a large scale” (Parry). Branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron [kekaust\ riasmen n t n idian suneid sin]. Accusative case [suneid sin] retained with the perfect passive participle of [kaust\ riaz], a rare verb only here and once in Strabo. Branded with the mark of Satan (2Ti 2:26) as Paul was with the marks of Christ (Ga 6:17). Agreeing in case with [pseudolog n].

4:3 Forbidding to marry [k luont n gamein]. Present active participle of common verb [k lu], to hinder, genitive case agreeing with [pseudolog n]. See Col 2:16, 21f., where Paul condemns the ascetic practices of the Gnostics. The Essenes, Therapeuta and other oriental sects forbade marriage. In 1Co 7 Paul does not condemn marriage. To abstain from meats [apechesthai br mat n]. Infinitive dependent, not on [k luont n], but on the positive idea [keleuont n] (implied, not expressed). Ablative case of [br mat n] after [apechesthai] (present direct middle, to hold oneself away from). See 1Co 8-10; Ro 14; 15 for disputes about “meats offered to idols” and Col 1:22f. for the Gnostic asceticism. Which God created [ha ho theos ektisen]. First active indicative of [ktiz] (Co 1:16). Cf. 1Co 10:25. To be received [eis metal mpsin]. “For reception.” Old word, only here in N.T. By them that believe and know [tois pistois kai epegn kosi]. Dative case, “for the believers and those who (one article unites closely) have known fully” (perfect active participle of [epigin sk], a Pauline use of the word (Col 1:6).

4:4 Creature [ktisma]. Late word from [ktiz], result of creating. See Ge 1:31; Mr 7:15; Ro 14:14 for the idea stated. To be rejected [apobl ton]. Old verbal adjective in passive sense from [apoball], to throw away, here only in N.T. If it be received [lambanomenon]. “Being received.” Present passive participle of [lamban ], in conditional sense, “with thanksgiving.”

4:5 It is sanctified [hagiazetai]. Present passive indicative of [hagia ], here “rendered holy” rather than “declared holy.” Cf. verse 4. Through the word of God and prayers [dia logou theou kai enteuxe s]. See 2:1 for [enteuxis]. Paul seems to refer to Genesis 1. It is almost a hendiadys “by the use of Scripture in prayer.”

4:6 If thou put the brethren in mind of these things [tauta hupotithemenos tois adelphois]. Present middle participle of [hupotith mi], to place under, to suggest, old and common verb, here only in N.T., “suggesting these things to the brethren.” Thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus [kalos es i diakonos Christou I sou]. This beautiful phrase covers one’s whole service for Christ (3:1-7). Nourished in [entrephomenos]. Present passive participle of [entreph ], old verb, to nourish in, used by Plato of “nourished in the laws,” here only in the N.T. The words of the faith [tois logois t s piste s]. Locative case. The right diet for babes in Christ. The Bolshevists in Russia are feeding the children on atheism to get rid of God. Which thou hast followed [h i par kolouth kas]. Perfect active indicative of [parakolouthe ], old verb, to follow beside, of persons (often in old Greek) or of ideas and things (Lu 1:3; 1Ti 4:6; 2Ti 3:10). With associative instrumental case [h i] (which).

4:7 Refuse [paraitou]. Present middle imperative second person singular of [paraite ], old verb, to ask of one and then to beg off from one as in Lu 14:18f.; Ac 25:11; 1Ti 4:7; 5:11; Tit 3:10; 2Ti 2:23. Profane [beb lous]. See 1:9. Old wives’ fables [gra deis muthous]. On [muthos], see 1:4. [Gra deis], late word (Strabo, Galen) from [graus], old woman, and [eidos] (look, appearance). Such as old women tell to children like the Gnostic aeons. Exercise thyself [gumnaze seauton]. Present active imperative of [gumnaz ], originally to exercise naked [gumnos]. Old and common verb, but in N.T. only here and Heb 5:14; 12:11.

4:8 Bodily exercise [h s matik gumnasia]. [Gumnasia] (from [gumnaz ], also a common old word, here only in N.T. So also [s matik ] (from [s ma ], body) in N.T. only here and Lu 3:22. Profitable [ phelimos]. Another old word (from [ phele ], to help, to profit), in N.T. only here, Tit 3:8; 2Ti 3:16. For a little [pros oligon]. “For little.” Probably extent in contrast to [pros panta] (for all things), though in Jas 4:14 it is time “for a little while.” Which now is [t s nun]. “The now life.” Of that which is to come [t s mellous s]. “Of the coming (future) life.”

4:9 See 1:15 for these very words, but here the phrase points to the preceding words, not to the following as there.

4:10 To this end [eis touto]. The godliness [eusebeia] of verse 8. See 2Co 6:10 as Paul’s own commentary. We labour [kopi men], Col 1:29) and strive [kai ag nizometha], Col 1:29). Both Pauline words. Because we have set our hope [hoti elpikamen]. Perfect active indicative of [elpiz ]
(Ro 15:12). Saviour of all men [s t r pant n anthr p n]. See 1:1 for [s t r] applied to God as here. Not that all men “are saved” in the full sense, but God gives life (6:13) to all (Ac 17:28). Specially of them that believe [malista pist n]. Making a distinction in the kinds of salvation meant. “While God is potentially Saviour of all, He is actually Saviour of the [pistoi]” (White). So Jesus is termed “Saviour of the World” (Joh 4:42). Cf. Ga 6:10.

4:12 Despise [kataphroneit]. Imperative active third singular of [kataphrone ], old verb, to think down on, to despise (Ro 2:4). Thy youth [sou t s neot tos]. Genitive case of old word (from [neos] as in Mr 10:20. Be thou [ginou]. Present middle imperative of [ginomai]. “Keep on becoming thou.” An ensample [tupos]. Old word from [tupt ], a type. Pauline use of the word (1Th 1:7; 2Th 3:9; Php 3:17; Tit 2:7). To them that believe [t n pist]. Objective genitive. In word [en log i]. In conversation as well as in public speech. In manner of life [en anastroph i]. “In bearing” (Ga 1:13; Eph 4:22). In purity [en hagnei i]. Old word from [hagneu ] [hagnos]. Sinlessness of life. Used of a Nazirite (Nu 6:2,21). Only here and 5:2 in N.T.

4:13 Till I come [he s erchomai]. “While I am coming” (present indicatitive with [he s], not “till I come” [he s elth ]). Give heed [proseche]. Present active imperative, supply [ton noun], “keep on putting thy mind on.” The reading [t i anagn sei]. Old word from [anagin sk ]. See 2Co 3:14. Probably in particular the public reading of the Scriptures (Ac 13:15), though surely private reading is not to be excluded. To exhortation [t i parakl sei], to teaching [t i didaskali i]. Two other public functions of the minister. Probably Paul does not mean for the exhortation to precede the instruction, but the reverse in actual public work. Exhortation needs teaching to rest it upon, a hint for preachers today.

4:14 Neglect not [m amelei]. Present active imperative in prohibition of [amele ], old verb, rare in N.T. (Mt 22:5; 1Ti 4:14; Heb 2:3; 8:9). From [amel s] [a] privative and [melei], not to care). Use with genitive. The gift that is in thee [tou en soi charismatos]. Late word of result from [charizomai], in papyri (Preisigke), a regular Pauline word in N.T. (1Co 1:7; 2Co 1:11; Ro 1:11; etc.). Here it is God’s gift to Timothy as in 2Ti 1:6. By prophecy [dia proph teias]. Accompanied by prophecy (1:18), not bestowed by prophecy. With the laying on of the hands of the presbytery [meta epithese s t n cheir n tou presbuteriou]. In Ac 13:2f., when Barnabas and Saul were formally set apart to the mission campaign (not then ordained as ministers, for they were already that), there was the call of the Spirit and the laying on of hands with prayer. Here again [meta] does not express instrument or means, but merely accompaniment. In 2Ti 1:6 Paul speaks only of his own laying on of hands, but the rest of the presbytery no doubt did so at the same time and the reference is to this incident. There is no way to tell when and where it was done, whether at Lystra when Timothy joined Paul’s party or at Ephesus just before Paul left Timothy there (1:3). Epithesis [from epitith mi], to lay upon) is an old word, in LXX, etc. In the N.T. we find it only here, 2Ti 1:16; Ac 8:18; Heb 6:2, but the verb [epitith mi] with [tas cheiras] more frequently (Ac 6:6 of the deacons; 8:19; 13:3; 1Ti 5:22, etc.). Presbuterion is a late word (ecclesiastical use also), first for the Jewish Sanhedrin (Lu 22:66; Ac 22:5), then (here only in N.T.) of Christian elders (common in Ignatius), though [presbuteros] (elder) for preachers (bishops) is common (Ac 11:30; 15:2; 20:17, etc.).

4:15 Be diligent in these things [tauta meleta]. Old verb from [melet ] (care, practice), present active imperative, “keep on practising these things.” In N.T. only here and Ac 4:25. Give thyself wholly to them [en toutois isthi]. Present imperative second person singular of [eimi], “keep on in these things.” Note five uses of [en] in verse 12 and three datives in verse 14. Plutarch (Pomp. 656 B) says Caesar was [en toutois] (“in these things”). It is like our “up to his ears” in work [in medias res] and sticking to his task. Thy progress [sou h prokop ]. Koin word from [prokopt ], to cut forward, to blaze the way, in N.T. only here and Php 1:12,25. Paul’s concern (purpose, [hina] and present subjunctive [ i] of [eimi] is that Timothy’s “progress” may be “manifest to all.” It is inspiring to see a young preacher grow for then the church will grow with him.

4:16 Take heed to thyself [epeche seaut i]. Present active imperative of old verb [epech ], to hold upon (Php 2:1,16), but here [ton noun] (the mind) must be supplied as in Ac 3:5 and as is common with [prosech ]. With dative case [seaut i]. “Keep on paying attention to thyself.” Some young preachers are careless about their health and habits. Some are too finical. And to the teaching [kai t i didaskali i]. This is important also. Continue in these things [epimene autois]. Present active imperative of [epimen ], old and common verb to stay by the side of a person or thing. See Ro 6:1; Col 1:23. “Stay by them,” “stick to them,” “see them through.” “Stick to the business of framing your own life and your teaching on right lines” (Parry). Thou shalt save [s seis]. Future active of [sz ], effective future, finally save. Cf. 1Co 9:27; Joh 10:9.
Chapter 5

5:1 Rebuke not an elder [presbuter i m epipl x is]. Dative case [presbuter i] used in the usual sense of an older man, not a minister (bishop as in 3:2) as is shown by “as a father.” First aorist (ingressive) active subjunctive with negative [m] (prohibition against committing the act) of [epipl ss ], to strike upon, old verb, but here only in N.T. and in figurative sense with words rather than with fists. Respect for age is what is here commanded, an item appropriate to the present time.

The younger men as brethren [ne terous h s adelphous]. Comparative adjective [ne teros] from [neos] (young). No article, “younger men.” Wise words for the young minister to know how to conduct himself with old men (reverence) and young men (fellowship, but not stooping to folly with them).

5:2 The elder women as mothers [presbuteras h s m teras]. Anarthrous again, “older women as mothers.” Respect and reverence once more. The younger as sisters, in all purity [ne teras h s adelphas en pas i hagni i]. Anarthrous also and comparative form as in verse 1. See 4:12 for [hagnia]. No sort of behavior will so easily make or mar the young preacher as his conduct with young women.

5:3 That are widows indeed [tas ont s ch ras]. For [ont s] (actually, really), see Lu 23:47; 1Co 14:25; and verse 5. For widows [ch ra] see Mr 12:40,42; Ac 6:1; 1Co 7:8. Parry notes that in verses 3-8 Paul discusses widows who are in distress and 9-16 those who are in the employment of the local church for certain work. Evidently, as in Acts 6:1-6, so here in Ephesus there had arisen some trouble over the widows in the church. Both for individual cases of need and as a class Timothy is to show proper respect [tim ], keep on honouring) the widows.

5:4 Grandchildren [ekgona]. Old word from [ekginomai], here only in N.T. Let them learn [manthanet san]. The children and grandchildren of a widow. Present active imperative third person plural of [manthan ]. “Let them keep on learning.” First [pr ton]. Adverb, first before anything else. No “corban” business here. No acts of “piety” toward God will make up for impiety towards parents. To shew piety [eusebein]. Present active infinitive with [manthanet san] and old verb, in N.T. only here and Ac 17:23. From [euseb s] [eu, sebomai], pious, dutiful. Their own family [ton idion oikon]. “Their own household.” Filial piety is primary unless parents interfere with duty to Christ (Lu 14:26). To requite [amoibas apodidonai]. Present active infinitive of [apodid mi], to give back, old and common verb (Ro 2:6), to keep on giving back. [Amoibas] (from [ameibomai], to requite like for like) is old and common word, but here only in N.T. Their parents [tois progonois]. Dative case of old and common word [progonos] (from [proginomai], to come before), “ancestor.” In N.T. only here and 2Ti 1:3. See 2:3 for “acceptable” [apodekton].

5:5 Desolate [memon men ]. Perfect passive participle of [mono ] (from [monos], “left alone,” old verb, here alone in N.T. Without husband, children, or other close kin. Hath her hope set on God
[lpiken epi theon]. Perfect active indicative of [elpiz], “hath placed her hope (and keeps it) on God.” Text doubtful whether God [theon] or Lord [Kurion]. Continues [prosmenei]. See on 1:3. With dative case here. Night and day [nuktos kai h meras]. “By night and by day” (genitive, not accusative). Paul does not say that she should pray “all night and day.”

5:6 She that giveth herself to pleasure [h spatal sa]. Present active participle of [splatala], late verb (Polybius) from [spatal] (riotous, luxurious living). In N.T. only here and Jas 5:5.

5:7 That they may be without reproach [hina anepilmptoi]. See 3:2 for [anepil mptos]. Final clause with [hina] and present subjunctive.

5:8 Provideth not for his own [t n idi n ou pronoei]. Condition of first class with [ei] and present active (or middle [pronoeitai] indicative of [pronoe], old verb, to think beforehand. Pauline word in N.T. only here, 2Co 8:21; Ro 12:7. With genitive case. He hath denied the faith [t n pistin rtai]. Perfect middle indicative of old verb [arneomai]. His act of impiety belies (Tit 1:16) his claim to the faith (Re 2:13). Worse than an unbeliever [apistou cheir n]. Ablative case of [apistou] after the comparative [cheir n]. Who makes no profession of piety.

5:9 Let none be enrolled as a widow [ch ra katalegesth]. Present passive imperative of [kataleg], old verb, to set down in an official list, only here in N.T. “Let a widow be enrolled,” the negative coming later, “having become of no less than sixty years” [m elatton et n hex konta gegonuia]. Second perfect active participle of [ginomai]. For the case of [et n], see Lu 2:42. This list of genuine widows (verses 3, 5) apparently had some kind of church work to do (care for the sick, the orphans, etc.). The wife of one man [henos andros gun]. Widows on this list must not be married a second time. This interpretation is not so clear for 3:2, 12; Tit 1:6.

5:10 If she hath brought up children [ei eteknotroph sen]. Condition of first class. Late and rare word (Aristotle, Epictetus), first aorist active indicative of [teknotrophe] [teknotrophos], from [teknon, treph], here only in N.T. Qualification for her work as leader. If she hath used hospitality to strangers [ei exenodoch sen]. First aorist again and same condition. Late form (Dio Cassius) of old verb [xenodoke] (Herodotus), to welcome strangers [xenous dechomai]. Only here in N.T. Hospitality another qualification for such leadership (3:2). If she hath washed the saints’ feet [ei hagi n podas enipsen]. Same condition and tense of [nipt] (old form [niz], common in N.T. (Joh 13:5). Proof of her hospitality, not of its being a church ordinance. If she hath relieved the afflicted [ei thlibomenois ep rkesen]. Same condition and tense of [eparke], to give sufficient aid, old word, in N.T. only here and verse 16. Experience that qualified her for eleemosynary work. If she hath diligently followed [ei ep kolouth sen]. Same condition and tense of [epakololouthe], old verb, to follow close upon [epi]. So here, verse 24; 1Pe 2:21. In a word such a widow must show her qualifications for leadership as with bishops and deacons.
5:11 But younger widows refuse [neteras de ch ras paraitou]. Present middle imperative as in 4:7. “Beg off from.” They lack experience as above and they have other ambitions. When they have waxed wanton [hotan katastr nias sin]. First aorist (ingressive) active subjunctive of [katastr nia], late compound (only here and Ignatius), to feel the impulse of sexual desire, but simplex [str nia] (Re 18:7,9). Souter renders it here “exercise youthful vigour against Christ” [tou Christou], genitive case after [kata] in composition.

5:12 Condemnation [krima]. See 3:6. They have rejected [thet san]. First aorist passive of [athete], late verb (first in LXX and Polybius), to reject, set aside (from [athetos]. See 1Th 4:8; Ga 2:21. Their first faith [tn pr t n pistin]. “Their first pledge” (promise, contract) to Christ. It is like breaking the marriage contract. Evidently one of the pledges on joining the order of widows was not to marry. Parry suggests a kind of ordination as with deacons and bishops (technical use of [krima] and [pistis].

5:13 And withal [hama de kai]. See Phm 1:22 for this very phrase, “and at the same time also.” Such young enrolled widows have other perils also. They learn to be idle [argai manthanousin]. There is no [einai] (to be) in the Greek. This very idiom without [einai] after [manthan] occurs in Plato and Dio Chrysostom, though unusual. [Argai] (idle) is old adjective [a] privative and [ergon], without work). See Mt 20:3; Tit 1:12. Going about [perierchomenai]. Present middle participle of [perierchomai], old compound verb. See Ac 19:13 of strollers. From house to house [tas oikias]. Literally “the houses,” “wandering around the houses.” Vivid picture of idle tattlers and gossipers. But tattlers also [alla kai phluaroi]. Old word from [phlu] (to boil up, to throw up bubbles, like blowing soap bubbles). Only here in N.T. [Phluare] in 3Jo 1:10 only in N.T. And busybodies [kai periergoi]. Old word (from [peri, ergon], busy about trifles to the neglect of important matters. In N.T. only here and Ac 19:19. See 2Th 3:11 for [periergazomai]. Things which they ought not [ta m deonta]. “The not necessary things,” and, as a result, often harmful. See Tit 1:11 [ha m dei] (which things are not necessary).

5:14 I desire [boulomai]. See 2:8. The younger widows [neteras]. No article and no word for widows, though that is clearly the idea. [Neteras] is accusative of general reference with [gamein] (to marry) the object (present infinitive active) of [boulomai]. Bear children [teknogonein]. A compound verb here only in N.T. and nowhere else save in Anthol. See [teknogonia] in 2:15. Rule the household [oikodespotein]. Late verb from [oikodespot s] (Mr 14:14), twice in the papyri, only here in N.T. Note that the wife is here put as ruler of the household, proper recognition of her influence, “new and improved position” (Liddon). Occasion [aphorm n]. Old word [apo, horm], a base to rush from, Pauline use in 2Co 5:12; 11:12; Ga 5:13. To the adversary [ti antikeimen i]. Dative case of the articular participle of [antikeimai], a Pauline idioms (Php 1:28). Reviling [loidorias]. Old word (from [loidore], in N.T. only here and 1Pe 3:9. Genitive case with [charin].

5:16 That believeth [pist]. “Believing woman.” Hath widows [echei ch ras]. The “any believing woman” is one of the household-rulers of verse 14. The “widows” here are the widows dependent on her and who are considered as candidates to be enrolled in the list. Let her relieve them [eparkeit autais]. For this verb (imperative present active) see verse 10. Let not be burdened [m bareisth]. Present passive imperative (in prohibition [m] of [bare], old verb [baros], burden), Pauline word (2Co 1:8). That are widows indeed [tais ont ch rais]. Dative case with [eparkes i] (first aorist active subjunctive with [hina], final clause). See verse 3 for this use of [ont i] with [ch rais] “the qualified and enrolled widows.” Cf. verse 9.

5:17 The elders that rule well [hoi kal proest presbuteroi]. See verse 1 for ordinary sense of [presbuteros] for “older man.” But here of position in same sense as [episkopos] (3:2) as in Tit 1:5 = [episkopos] in verse 7. Cf. Luke’s use of [presbuteros] (Ac 20:17) = Paul’s [episkopous] (Ac 20:28). [Proest tes] is second perfect active participle of [proist mi] (intransitive use) for which see 3:4. Let be counted worthy [axiousth san]. Present passive imperative of [axio], to deem worthy (2Th 1:11). With genitive case here. Of double honour [diplo s tim s]. Old and common contract adjective [diploos], two-fold, in opposition to [haploos], single fold). But why “of double honour”? See 6:1 for “of all honour.” White suggests “remuneration” rather than “honour” for [tim s] (a common use for price or pay). Liddon proposes “honorarium” (both honour and pay and so “double”). Wetstein gives numerous examples of soldiers receiving double pay for unusual services. Some suggest twice the pay given the enrolled widows. Especially those who labour in word and teaching [malista hoi kopi ntes en log i kai didaskali i]. Either those who work hard or toil (usual meaning of [kopia], 2Ti 2:6) in preaching and teaching (most probable meaning. See verse 18) or those who teach and preach and not merely preside (a doubtful distinction in “elders” at this time). See Tit 1:8f. See both [kopia] and [proistamai] used for same men (elders) in 1Th 5:12 and the use of [kopia] in 1Co 15:10; 16:16.

5:18 Thou shalt not muzzle [ou phim seis]. Prohibition by [ou] and future (volitive) indicative of [phimo] (from [phimos], muzzle), old word, quoted also in 1Co 9:9 as here from De 25:4, and for the same purpose, to show the preacher’s right to pay for his work. See 1Co 9:9 for [alo nta] (when he treadeth out the corn). The labourer is worthy of his hire [axios ho ergat tou misthou autou]. These words occur in precisely this form in Lu 10:7. It appears also in Mt 10:10 with [ts troph s] (food) instead of [tou misthou]. In 1Co 9:14 Paul has the sense of it and says: “so also the Lord ordained,” clearly meaning that Jesus had so said. It only remains to tell whether Paul here is quoting an unwritten saying of Jesus as he did in Ac 20:35 or even the Gospel of Luke or Q (the Logia of Jesus). There is no way to decide this question. If Luke wrote his Gospel before A.D. 62 as is quite possible and Acts by A.D. 63, he could refer to the Gospel. It is not clear whether Scripture is here meant to apply to this quotation from the Lord Jesus. For [ergat s] (labourer) see Php 3:2.

5:19 Against an elder [kata presbuterou]. In the official sense of verses 17f. Receive not [m paradechou]. Present middle imperative with [m] (prohibition) of [paradechomai], to receive, to entertain. Old verb. See Ac 22:18. Accusation [kat gorian]. Old word (from [kat goros]). In N.T. only here, Tit 1:6; Joh 18:29 in critical text. Except [ektos ei m]. For this double construction see 1Co 14:5; 15:2. At the mouth of [epi]. Idiomatic use of [epi] (upon the basis of) as in 2Co 13:1.

5:20 Them that sin [tous hamartanontas]. The elders who continue to sin (present active participle). In the sight of all [en pion pant n]. “In the eye of [ho en opi n], the one who is in the eye of, then combined = [en pion] all” the elders (or even of the church). See next verse 21 and Ga 1:20. Public rebuke when a clear case, not promiscuous gossip. May be in fear [phobon ech sin]. Present active subjunctive with [hina] (final clause), “may keep on having fear” (of exposure). Possibly, “the rest of the elders.”

5:21 The elect angels [t n eklekt n aggel n]. For this triad of God, Christ, angels, see Lu 9:26. “Elect” in the sense of the “holy” angels who kept their own principality (Jude 1:6) and who did not sin (2Pe 2:4). Paul shows his interest in angels in 1Co 4:9; 11:10. Observe [phulax is]. First aorist active subjunctive of [phulass], to guard, to keep (Ro 2:26). Subfinal use of [hina]. Without prejudice [ch ris prokrimatos]. Late and rare word (from [prokin], to judge beforehand), three times in the papyri, here only in N.T. “Without prejudgment.” By partiality [kata prosklisin]. Late word from [prosklin], to incline towards one (Ac 5:36), only here in N.T.

5:22 Lay hands hastily [cheiras tache s epitithei]. Present active imperative of [epitith mi] in the sense of approval (ordination) as in Ac 6:6; 13:3. But it is not clear whether it is the case of ministers just ordained as in 4:14 [epitheis], or of warning against hasty ordination of untired men, or the recognition and restoration of deposed ministers (verse 20) as suits the context. The prohibition suits either situation, or both. Be partakers of other men’s sins [koin nei hamartiais allotriais]. Present active imperative of [koin ne] (from [koin nos], partner) with [m] in prohibition with associative instrumental case as in 2Jo 1:11; Ro 12:13. On [allotrios] (belonging to another) see Ro 14:4. Keep thyself pure [seauton hagnon t rei]. “Keep on keeping thyself pure.” Present active imperative of [t re].

5:23 Be no longer a drinker of water [m keti hudropotei]. Present active imperative (prohibition) of [hudropote], old verb (from [hudropot s], water drinker, [hud r, pin], here only in N.T. Not complete asceticism, but only the need of some wine urged in Timothy’s peculiar physical condition (a sort of medical prescription for this case). But use a little wine [alla ain i olig i chr]. Present middle imperative of [chraomai] with instrumental case. The emphasis is on [olig i] (a little). For thy stomach’s sake [dia ton stomachon]. Old word from [stoma] (mouth). In Homer throat, opening of the stomach (Aristotle), stomach in Plutarch. Here only in N.T. Our word “stomach.” Thine often infirmities \([\text{tas puknas sou astheneias}]\). \([\text{Puknos}]\) is old word, dense, frequent. In N.T. only here, Lu 5:33; Ac 24:26. \([\text{Astheneias}]\) = weaknesses, lack of strength (Ro 8:26). Timothy was clearly a semi-invalid.

5:24 Evident \([\text{prod loi}]\). “Openly plain,” “plain before all.” Old word, in N.T. only here and Heb 7:24. Going before unto judgment \([\text{proagousai eis krisin}]\). See 1:18 for \([\text{proag }]\). The sins are so plain that they receive instant condemnation. And some men also they follow after \([\text{tisin de kai epakolouthousin}]\). Associative instrumental case \([\text{tisin}]\) with \([\text{epakolouthousin}]\) for which verb see verse 10, “dog their steps” (Parry) like 1Pe 2:21, not clearly manifest at first, but come out plainly at last. How true that is of secret sins.

5:25 Such as are otherwise \([\text{ta all s echonta}]\). “Those (deeds, \([\text{erga}]\) which have it otherwise.” That is good deeds not clearly manifest. Cannot be hid \([\text{krub nai ou dunantai}]\). Second aorist passive infinitive of \([\text{krupt}]\). There is comfort here for modest preachers and other believers whose good deeds are not known and not blazoned forth. They will come out in the end. See Mt 5:14-16.
6:1 Under the yoke [hupo zugon]. As slaves [douloi], bondsmen). Perhaps under heathen masters (1Pe 2:18). For the slave problem, see also Phm 1; Col 3:22; Eph 6:5; Tit 2:9. See Mt 11:29 for Christ’s “yoke” [zugon], from [zeugnumi], to join). Their own masters [tous idious despotas]. That is always where the shoe pinches. Our “despot” is this very Greek word, the strict correlative of slave [doulos], while [kurios] has a wider outlook. Old word only here, Tit 2:9; 2Ti 2:21; 1Pe 2:18 for human masters. Applied to God in Lu 2:29; Ac 4:24, 29 and to Christ in 2Pe 2:1. The name of God [to onoma tou theou]. See Ro 2:24. If the heathen could say that Christian slaves were not as dependable as non-Christian slaves. Negative purpose with [hina m ] and present passive subjunctive [blasph m tai].

6:2 Let not despise them [m kataphroneit san]. Negative imperative active third plural of [kataphrone ], to think down on. See 4:12. He must not presume on the equality of Christian brotherhood not allowed by the state’s laws. Some of these Christian slaves might be pastors of churches to which the master belonged. For the difficulty of the Christian master’s position, see 1Co 7:22; Phm 1:16. But rather [alla mallon]. Render the Christian Master better service. They that partake of the benefit [hoi s energesias antilambanomenoi]. For [eubergesias] (genitive case after participle) see Ac 4:9, only other N.T. example of this old word. Present middle participle of [antilamban ], old verb, to take in turn, to lay fast hold of, in N.T. only here, Lu 1:54; Ac 20:35.

6:3 Teacheth a different doctrine [heterodidaskalei]. See 1:3 for this verb, present active indicative here in condition of first class. Consenteth not [m proserchetai]. Also condition of first class with [m ] instead of [ou]. [Proserchomai] (old verb, to come to, to approach, with dative) is common enough in N.T. (Heb 4:16; 7:25, etc.), but in the metaphorical sense of coming to one’s ideas, assenting to, here only in N.T., but is so used in Philo and Irenaeus (Ellicott). Sound words [hugianousin logos]. See 1:10 for [hugiai ]. The words of our Lord Jesus Christ [tois tou kuriou h m n I sou Christou]. Either subjective genitive (the words from the Lord Jesus, a collection of his sayings in Lock’s opinion like 5:18; Ac 20:35, at least in the Spirit of Jesus as Ac 16:7; 1Co 11:23) or objective genitive about Jesus like 2Ti 1:8; 1Co 1:18. According to godliness [kata eusebeian]. Promoting (designed for) godliness as in Tit 1:1.

6:4 He is puffed up [tetuph tai]. Perfect passive indicative of [tupho ], for which see 3:6. Knowing nothing [m den epistamenos]. Present middle participle of [epistamai]. Ignorance is a frequent companion of conceit. Doting [nos n]. Present active participle of [nose ], to be sick, to be morbid over, old word, only here in N.T. Disputes of words [logomachias]. Our “logomachy.” From [logomache ] (2Ti 2:14), and that from [logos] and [machomai], to fight over words, late and rare word, here only in N.T. See Plato (Tim. 1085 F) for “wars in words” [machas en logos]. Whereof [ex h n]. “From which things.” Surmisings [huponoiai]. Old word from [huponoe ], to surmise, to suspect (Ac 25:18), only here in N.T. All these words are akin (envy, \[phthonos\], strife, \[eris\], railings or slanders, \[blasph miai\], all products of an ignorant and conceited mind.

6:5 Wranglings \[diaparatribai\]. Late and rare (Clem. of Alex.) double compound \[dia\], mutual or thorough, \[paratribai\], irritations or rubbings alongside). “Mutual irritations” (Field). Corrupted in mind \[diephtharmen n ton noun\]. Perfect passive participle of \[diaphther\], to corrupt, genitive case agreeing with \[anthr p n\] (of men) and retaining the accusative \[ton noun\]. Bereft of the truth \[apester men n t s al theias\]. Perfect passive participle of \[apostere\], old verb (1Co 6:8) with the ablative case after it \[al theias\]. A way of gain \[porismon\]. Late word from \[poriz\], to provide, to gain. Only here in N.T. “Rich Christians.” Predicate accusative with \[einai\] (indirect assertion) in apposition with \[eusebeian\], the accusative of general reference.

6:6 With contentment \[meta autarkeias\]. Old word from \[autark s] [autos, arke] as in Php 4:11. In N.T. only here and 2Co 9:8. This attitude of mind is Paul’s conception of “great gain.”

6:7 Brought into \[eis negkamen\], second aorist active stem with first aorist ending, common in the Koin, carry out \[exenegkein\], second aorist active infinitive). Note play on the prepositions \[eis-\] and \[ex-\].

6:8 Food \[diatrophas\]. Plural, supports or nourishments (from \[diatreph\], to support). Old word, here only in N.T. Covering \[skepasmata\]. Plural, “coverings.” Late word from \[skepaz\], to cover. Here only in N.T. We shall be content \[arkesth sometha\]. First future passive of \[arke\], to be content. Old word. See 2Co 12:9. This is the \[autarkeia\] of verse 6. There with \[toutois\]. Associative instrumental case, “with these.”

6:9 Desire to be rich \[boulomenoi ploutein\]. The will \[boulomai\] to be rich at any cost and in haste (Pr 28:20). Some MSS. have “trust in riches” in Mr 10:24. Possibly Paul still has teachers and preachers in mind. Fall into \[empiptousin eis\]. See on 3:6 for \[en — eis\] and 3:7 for \[pagida\] (snare). Foolish \[ano tous\]. See Ga 3:1, 3. Hurtful \[blaberas\]. Old adjective from \[blapt\], to injure, here alone in N.T. Drown \[buthizousin\]. Late word (literary Koin) from \[buthos\] (bottom), to drag to the bottom. In N.T. only here and Lu 5:7 (of the boat). Drown in the lusts with the issue “in destruction and perdition” \[eis olethron kai ap leian\]. Not annihilation, but eternal punishment. The combination only here, but for \[olethros\], see 1Th 5:3; 2Th 1:9; 1Co 5:5 and for \[ap leia\], see 2Th 2:3; Php 3:19.

6:10 The love of money \[h philarguria\]. Vulgate, avaritia. Common word (from \[philarguros\], 2Ti 3:12, and that from \[philos, arguros\], only here in N.T. Refers to verse 9 \[boulomenoi ploutein\].

A root of all kinds of evil \[riza pant n t n kak n\]. A root \[riza\]. Old word, common in literal (Mt 3:10) and metaphorical sense (Ro 11:11-18). Field (Ot. Norv.) argues for “the root” as the idea of this predicate without saying that it is the only root. Undoubtedly a proverb that Paul here quotes, attributed to Bion and to Democritus \[t n philargurian einai m tropolin pant n t n kak n\], where “metropolis” takes the place of “root.” Surely men today need no proof of the fact that men and women will commit any sin or crime for money. Reaching after [oregomenoi]. Present middle participle of [oreg] (see 3:1) with genitive [hs] (which). Have been led astray [apeplan th san]. First aorist passive indicative of [apoplena], old compound verb, in N.T. only here and Mr 13:22. Have pierced themselves through [heautous periepeiran]. First aorist active (with reflexive pronoun) of late compound [peripeir], only here in N.T. Perfective use of [peri] (around, completely to pierce). With many sorrows [odunais pollais]. Instrumental case of [odun] (consuming, eating grief). In N.T. only here and Ro 9:2.

6:11 O man of God [anthr pe theou]. In N.T. only here and 2Ti 3:17, there general and here personal appeal to Timothy. Cf. De 33:1; 1Sa 2:27. Flee [pheuge], follow after [di ke]. Vivid verbs in present active imperative. The preacher can not afford to parley with such temptations. Meekness [praupathian]. Late compound from [praupath], in Philo about Abraham, here only in N.T.

6:12 Fight the good fight [ag nizou ton kalon ag na]. Cognate accusative with present middle imperative of [ag niz], Pauline word (1Co 9:25; Col 1:29). Lay hold on [epilabou]. Second (ingressive) aorist middle imperative of [epilamban], “get a grip on.” See same verb with genitive also in verse 19. Thou wast called [ekl th s]. First aorist passive of [kale] as in 1Co 1:9; Col 3:15. The good confession [tn kal n homologian]. Cognate accusative with [h molog sas] (first aorist active indicative of [homologe], the public confession in baptism which many witnessed. See it also in verse 13 of Jesus).

6:13 Who quickeneth all things [tou zogonountos ta panta]. Present active participle of [zogone] [z ogonos], from [zos, gen], late word to give life, to bring forth alive, in N.T. only here and Ac 7:19. See 1Sa 2:6. Before Pontius Pilate [epi Pontiou Peilatou]. Not “in the time of,” but “in the presence of.” Witnessed [martur santos]. Note [marture], not [homologe] as in verse 12. Christ gave his evidence as a witness to the Kingdom of God. Evidently Paul knew some of the facts that appear in Joh 18.

6:14 That thou keep [t r sai se]. First aorist active infinitive of [t re], with accusative of general reference [se] in indirect command after [paraggell]. Without spot [asplon]. Late adjective [a] privative, [spilos], spot, Eph 5:27). In inscription and papyri. Without reproach [anepil mpton]. See 3:2; 5:7. Until the appearing [mechri t s epipaneias]. “Until the epiphany” (the second epiphany or coming of Christ). Late word in inscriptions for important event like the epiphany of Caligula, in the papyri as a medical term. In 2Th 2:18 we have both [epipaneia] and [parousia]. See Tit 2:13; 2Ti 1:10; 4:1, 8.

6:15 In its own times [kairois idiois]. Locative case. May be “in his own times.” See 2:6. Clearly not for us to figure out. Who is the blessed and only Potentate [ho makarios kai monos dunast s]. “The happy and alone Potentate.” [Dunast s], old word, in N.T. only here, Lu 1:52; Ac 8:27 (the 6:16 Who only hath immortality [ho monos ech\,n\, anthanasion]. “The one who alone has immortality.” [Athanasia] [athanatos], [a] privative and [thanatos], old word, in N.T. only here and 1Co 15:53f. Domitian demanded that he be addressed as “Dominus et Deus noster.” Emperor worship may be behind the use of [monos] (alone) here. Unapproachable [aprositon]. See Ps 104:2. Late compound verbal adjective [a] privative, [pros, ienai], to go). Here only in N.T. Literary Koin word. Nor can see [oude idein dunatai]. See [aoraton] in Col 1:15 and also Joh 1:18; Mt 11:27. The “amen” marks the close of the doxology as in 1:17.

6:17 In this present world [en t\,i nun ai\,ni]. “In the now age,” in contrast with the future. That they be not high-minded [m\, hups lophronein]. Present active infinitive with negative in indirect command after [paraggelle], “not to be high-minded.” Only instance of the word save some MSS. of Ro 11:20 (for [m\, hups laphronei] and a scholion on Pindar. Have their hope set [lpikenai]. Perfect active infinitive of [elpiz\,]. On the uncertainty of riches [epi ploutou ad lot ti]. Literary Koin word [ad lot s], only here in N.T. A “vigorouss oxymoron” (White). Cf. Ro 6:4. Riches have wings. But on God [all\, epi the i\,]. He alone is stable, not wealth. Richly all things to enjoy [panta plousi\,s eis apolausin]. “A lavish emphasis to the generosity of God” (Parry). [Apolausis] is old word from [apolau\,], to enjoy, in N.T. only here and Heb 11:25.

6:18 That they do good [agathoergein]. Late word [agathos], [erg\,], in N.T. only here and Ac 14:17. Rich in good works [ploutein en ergois kaloi\,s]. See Lu 12:21 “rich toward God” and Mt 6:19f. for “treasures in heaven.” Ready to distribute [eumetadotous]. Late and rare verbal [eu, meta, did mi]. Free to give, liberal. Only here in N.T. Willing to communicate [koin nikous]. Old adjective, ready to share, gracious, liberal again. Only here in N.T. See Ga 6:6; Php 4:15.

6:19 Laying up in store [apoth saurizontas]. Late literary word [apo\,] and [th sauriz \,], only here in N.T. Same paradox as in Mt 6:19f., “laying up in store” by giving it away. Which is life indeed [t\,s\, ont\,s\, z\,s\,]. See 5:3 for [ont\,s\,]. This life is merely the shadow of the eternal reality to come.

6:20 Guard that which is committed unto thee [i\,n\, parath k\,n\, phulaxon]. “Keep (aorist of urgency) the deposit.” [Parath k\,n\,] (from [paratith\,mi\,], to place beside as a deposit, 2Ti 2:2), a banking figure, common in the papyri in this sense for the Attic [parakatath\,k\,] (Textus Receptus here, 2Ti 1:12, 14). See substantive also in 2Ti 1:12, 14. Turning away from [ektrepomenos]. Present middle participle of [ektrep\,], for which see 1:6; 5:15. Babblings [kenoph nias]. From [kenoph\, nos\,], uttering emptiness. Late and rare compound, in N.T. only here and 2Ti 2:16. Oppositions [antitheseis\,]. Old word [anti, thesis\,], antithesis, only here in N.T. Of the knowledge which is falsely so called [t\,s\, pseud numou\, gn\, se\,s\,]. “Of the falsely named knowledge.” Old word [pseud\,s\, onoma\,]. Our “pseudonymous.” Only here in N.T.
6:21 Have erred [ stoch san]. First aorist active indicative of [astoche]. See 1:6 for this word.
